

Welcome Home

Welcome, Krista Aslanian! Welcome, Sara Benedetti! Welcome, Marcy Ryan! Welcome, all who have known this church for a long time, and welcome, those just getting to know us!

Welcome Home.

You may be seeing those words a lot these days, both by our church and other places. Here is what it means to me. Welcome to a church community where you do not have to “fit in” to belong. You don’t have to be perfect. You don’t have to earn your place. Here, the stranger finds a friend.

Our church has long been a place of welcome to the larger community, one of key leadership for and stewardship to our neighbors. These days this is still true, but we think of it in slightly different terms. We still promise to provide for authentic and honest Christian worship. We still promise dynamic education. We still foster relationships of support. We still serve our neighbors. The difference is that we are increasingly capable of connecting with you no matter where you may travel.

A couple of years ago our church leaders met to talk about staffing for our future. Members of the church were brought in and consulted along the way, our recent mission studies served as the foundation. Through this time of intense discernment our church leaders grew resolute that PCW is a place where lives are utterly changed through our worship, learning, connecting, and serving. Everything we do is intended to help you experience a holy encounter. Our staffing model reflects this.

Sara Benedetti, our new Associate Pastor for Children, Youth, and Families is already at work developing a comprehensive ministry for the families of our church, from cradle through college. She is joined by our Interim Director for Faith Formation, Krista Aslanian, who is heading the programmatic initiatives to support the faith formation of our youngest members and their families.

This month Marcy (Rudins) Ryan steps onboard, ready to shape a holistic approach to the way we live together, learn together, serve together, and care for each other. Small groups and house church programs, education initiatives, congregational care, and mission programs will all become more connected to each other through her leadership.

Here at The Presbyterian Church in Westfield we don’t want to be house of worship so much as your spiritual home.

See you this fall!
Jeremy

Clerk's Corner: Highlights of the September 14, 2021 Regular Session Meeting

Moderator's Report

Rev. Jeremy Jinkins said that we have been working on the vision and mission for the last two years and are in our first year of reinvesting in the infrastructure, both digital and in-person. He asked everyone to work on the budgets over the next month to express each Commission's needs for the next year. He suggested using these questions:

1. What is it that your Commission does?
2. What do you need to engage people?
3. What do you want to achieve?

The budget will be voted on at the November Session meeting. Alan Smith said that he had a conversation with a member who was concerned about the amount of money being spent. Alan said that he explained that we are on an intentional path. The vision/mission is guiding generosity, worship services and the life of the church. He said that member felt much better after hearing about the process we are using.

Session Updates:

1. Worship Commission- Nancy Smith reported that Worship Commission is looking deeper into the elements of worship. There will be an "Invitation to the Life of the Church" time during worship. People will talk about how they are responding to God's call and how it makes them feel more at home in the church. David Seaman and Jessica Cerino will be contacting people to speak at worship services. People can share what they are doing and how it affects their life and faith. The talk should be 2 minutes.
2. Faith Formation Update- Jeremy thanked Bill Cook and Krista Aslanian for all the work they have done for Faith Formation.

3. Stewardship Update- Bill Tittle reported the Stewardship season is about to begin and that giving has held up well during Covid.
  - The stewardship theme will be “Welcome Home”. There will be about 50 people at the Adam’s home on Sunday, 9/19/21.
  - Bill said they identified more than 27 activity groups to speak with about generosity. The leaders will be trained and then speak with the groups that they interact with. There will be three training session starting on 9/15/21 and then on the next two Wednesday nights.
  - Videos are being prepared and the communication plan is in place. Bill thanked Laure Park and Communications.
  - Liz Fischer will give an introduction about the Stewardship season in worship on 9/19/21.
  - Bill said the Celebration on the front lawn will be Sunday, 9/26/21 and the rain date will be 10/24/21.
  - Bill asked that all Elders please submit their pledge cards before 9/26/21. They would like to announce that all Session members have pledged on the first day.
  - The pledge cards are in development. A draft was shown to Session and the link can be used for Session to submit their pledges.
  - Bill asked Session to use the “4 P’s” when considering what their pledge will be. Prayerful thought on giving; Proportional giving- giving in kind; Pleasing- is what I am giving pleasing to God; and Peacefulness- am I at peace with my gift?
4. Stewardship Kick Off Celebration Plans for Front Lawn (9/26/21)-Sara Benedetti said that she and Krista had brainstormed ideas for the Front Lawn celebration. There will be games; activities for children; individual, prepackaged snacks and water bottles. She is working with Beyanka on communications. Volunteers are needed to help. Please contact Sara. A concern was raised about the first “celebration” in months being tied to the Stewardship season. The response was that Stewardship is not about raising money- it is spiritual growth and growing generosity. Jeremy said that in the future the budget process will change and will not be tied to the raising of funds.
5. Budget Process- Alan Smith said that the August Financial report will be out shortly. He will provide information about spending over the last 2 years and will share with everyone.
6. Technology Transformation Team Update- Martha Kieczkowski said the team in evaluating the needs throughout the campus. They have been meeting weekly since May. They have taken road trips to St. Helen’s, which a complete rebuild of the church; Morristown Presbyterian Church, which was a retrofit; and they are still trying to get to Totowa to see the contemporary service space. Mike Quinlan reported that there had been 4 groups for on-site visits. Two RFI’s (Request for Information) have been received. One is for Internet connectivity and the other for AV packages. The team has spoken with Nancy Smith’s group about room/space usage on the campus. There will be some hybrid rooms and carts with the required equipment that can be moved to rooms as needed.

Zambia Update

We are pleased to tell you the first of the funds for the programs of support for our brothers and sisters in Livingstone have been received by the church and distribution plans are in place with action started. Immediate support includes:

- 50% for the empowerment fund to be shared among the families equally per household.
  - Each household should find a way to sustain their families after getting the funds.
  - All members agreed to start saving which will be helpful to the church activities especially the school and all the members.
  - There will be a training to help on how to start saving and do business.
- The other 50% will go for microfinance which will be a fund for the mini-loans at 5% interest.
- Funds were also received to continue PCW's support of the church's internet connectivity and direct food support for HIV/AIDS victims for whom they provide care.

The above stipulations were arrived at by mutual agreement and insistence among the Livingstone congregation, the synod for Zambia, and a PC(USA) Zambia mission co-worker, to ensure effective use of the funds.

Additional work continues to support further roll-out of the empowerment programs in the immediate future, as the church and synod have suggested the funds will be divested most easily in portions rather than all-at-once. The water sourcing project is in the early stages of vetting service providers and soliciting bids for contracts; information will follow as this develops.

Rev. Sevatt Kabaghe, Synod General Secretary wrote "What a joy when God has granted peace in someone's heart and made a way for the impossible to be possible. ... We are so grateful as a synod for this will be a way to help the sustenance of the work of the Lord in Livingstone." Robert Nkunika, stated clerk of the Livingstone Church, sent the members' deepest heartfelt gratitude to the entire PCW.

The Zambia Mission Team is very grateful for the enormous generosity of our church members and friends. Thank you!

Weedy Workers

Thank you to everyone who served as a “Weedy Worker” the past six months! We will not be meeting again until next April 2022.

We had a wonderful dedicated team of people who weeded, pruned and mulched the church grounds. Thank you to Hans Polak, Nancy Smith, Leslie Bischoff, Donna Vasel, Susan Murtishaw, Carolyn Fleder, Jane Francz, Sam Valentine, Tina Valentine, and Lisa Black. You all made working on the church grounds a pleasure and kept everything looking great! Thank you for your dedication and joy! See you next Spring!

A Letter from Rev. Marcy Rudins

Grace and Peace, my name is Rev. Marcy Rudins, and I am delighted to begin serving you at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield as your Associate Pastor for Congregational Care! As a current minister in the Reformed Church in America, I have a bit of a different background, however what I do bring is a wealth of knowledge and eagerness in discerning how you may need care.

I grew up in the Midwest, in the suburbs of Chicago where I then attended Hope College in Holland, Michigan. From college, I went on to seminary at Western Theological Seminary (also in Holland, MI) and got my M.Div. My first call to ministry led me out east to upstate New York as an associate pastor. Over the last year I discerned and opened up to where God was leading me next and it brought me here.

I am enamored with this church's system of care and deep theological roots from where it comes. One of my greatest passions for this role is that I would be able to not only offer individual care and counsel, but also provide retreats, workshops, immersion/mission trips, as well as worship opportunities. My overall call to ministry is to provide safe and sacred space for all people to experience belonging and rest. I am so looking forward to providing that space for each of you.

As I prepare for starting this new role, I will be praying for this next year and what that will look like for each of us as we covenant together. But before I get there and get to know you more, I wanted to also share a bit about myself.

I absolutely love being outside and especially hiking or kayaking. I love being in the kitchen, but prefer to be baking when I can. I love reading, writing poetry, and listening to podcasts (one of my favorites is "Revisionist History" by Malcolm Gladwell). I love laughing with friends, listening to stories, and spending quality time with my fiancé (soon to be husband by September 25th!), Gene.

I can't wait to be with each of you, and share holy space with you. Until then, may God's peace be with each of you.

Warmly, Marcy

Bible Studies, Book & Small Groups Activities

- Lunch and a Book:

next meeting will be held on Friday, November 5th from 12 - 1:00 p.m. when we will discuss “The New Wilderness” by Diane Cook. This book is a major departure from what we often read. It is a story of the effects of climate change, mother-daughter relationships and the world we make for our children. It should give us a lot to discuss. Please contact Lisa Black, imb.blacklaw@gmail.com to get the zoom link and join the discussion.

- Tuesday Talks With Tom:

This month the talks continue their fall Bible study on THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS, aka the sins we all enjoy! I hope you will join us each Tuesday afternoon from 4:00 to 4:45. Didn't sign up yet? No problem. Contact the church office to receive the zoom link for the remainder of this series! Just as a side bar, not fair to google the list of them until you tried to list them by yourself. Hope to have you join us.

- Caring Friends is back!

Caring Friends is a group for Seniors that meet once a month for coffee, fellowship and fun. It is a great opportunity to meet some new friends and get to know old friends better.

I Thessalonians 5:11 tells us that we are to “encourage one another and build each other up”. Come and find out what Caring Friends is all about. We would love to have you join us!. Our next meeting is Monday, October 25, at 11am in the Christian Lounge.

If you would like to know more about the group, contact Nancy Smith at 908 -578-4741 or via email: nancyreidsmith@gmail

Theology Discussion Group New Bible Study Beginning November 1st!

It is time to utilize the lessons we have been learning over the years, and to open a conversation with all seekers to interpret the teaching of Jesus and advance our faith journey.

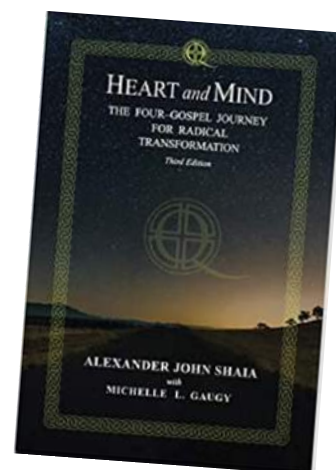

We hope that you will join us as we walk through the Gospels utilizing the work of a renown Biblical scholar – Alexander Shaia, PhD through his book Heart and Mind: The Four-Gospel Journey for Radical Transformation. Dr. Shaia extensively researched early church history and biblical texts to formulate new insights into the lessons taught through the 4 Gospels.

The walk will be relatively easy as Dr. Shaia does the heavy lifting and presents introductions and interpretations of major passage by major passage using easily accessible language and insights.

The plan is to offer two meeting times – one during the afternoon and one during the evening. We will try to meet in person but will use Zoom when needed.

The meetings will occur on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of each month: 3-4:30pm and 7:30-9pm starting on Monday, November 1st. The format will be the same for each meeting time and will revolve around assigned readings from Heart and Mind and we will work to thoroughly discuss lessons learned, implications and actions encouraged. Please contact Alan Smith alandsmith518@gmail.com for more information.

“This is a stunning book. You will not read the gospels the same way ever again. You will not see your life the same way ever again. Here is a masterful work by one of my favorite teachers-guides-leader-village elder - Alexander John Shaia.” - Rob Bell, NYT bestselling author, and speaker. This book enriches prayer.

Faith Formation

Sunday School Volunteers Needed!

- Faith Formation is looking for more volunteers to help with both in person and digital Sunday School! It is a wonderful way to give back to the church community, while helping our children explore their faith. The best part? It is so easy! The story, questions, crafts, and activities are always prepped for you. All you need to do is show up! Youth looking to fulfill service hours can participate in either option.

In-Person Sunday School

- We are using a “one room” Sunday School, in Assembly Hall, which gives us direct access to outdoor Playground 1, which we will use as much as we can, for as long as the weather allows.
- In accordance with the church and school policy to keep everyone as safe as possible, all parent (or youth volunteers looking to complete service hours) must be fully vaccinated*. (If you are not vaccinated or unable to get vaccinated, you can still participate in our digital option.)

Digital Sunday School

- The same Bible story and suggested activities we offer each week in person is pre-recorded and posted on our website and sent out via email for participants who won't be attending live.
- We need volunteers to record themselves reading these stories and asking questions. This is a great opportunity for anyone in the church community who wants to help reach our children!

Please respond to Krista Aslanian at faithformation@westfieldpc.org, or 908-233-0301 ext. 44, ASAP to let us know if you are able to teach in-person Sunday School, record digital lessons, or both.

Welcome Home 2022 Commitment

What can turn a house of worship into a spiritual home? At PCW we believe it starts with a community of support through every one of our ministries, both digital and in person.

Our foundation rests on Jesus of Nazareth, in whose life we see the love and grace of the divine at work, for use even today.

Everything we do at PCW is designed to help YOU unlock your spiritual life. This fall we are focused to help you do just that. Will you take the challenge?

Here is what we are asking of you.

- Worship with us (in person Sunday mornings at 10am or online)
- Join a Bible study or Small Group
- Pray with us and prayerfully consider the ways in which you are growing in your own faith in all of its elements.

To help you, we would like to share the 4 P's of your 2022 Commitment:

1. PRAYER. Prayer starts it all. Nothing prepares our heart to respond to God like seeking His heart through prayer.
2. PROPORTIONAL. Strive to respond in proportion to God's blessing and provision. This will be different for each of us. And that's okay! Paul says that gifts are "acceptable according to what a person has not according to what he does not have." (2 Corinthians 8:12)
3. PLEASING. Seek a pledge decision that is pleasing to God. For most of us, it is easy to find what is pleasing to us. But to find what is pleasing to God, our faith will likely need to be stretched through prayer and the leadership of the Holy Spirit.
4. PEACE. Look for and anticipate peace from God that passes all understanding after making a prayerful and proportional pledge that is pleasing to Him.

Commitment Day is Sunday, October 24. Will you join us in making this vision a reality?

(If you have not received your Welcome Home 2022 Commitment Card, you may pick one up in the church office or after worship on Sunday.)

"I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them. That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built."

-Luke 6:47-48
